

Walk over water at Kenmore by Loch Tay

Spend a morning in this idyllic location: stroll around the conservation village of Kenmore, walk by the river or loch shore, relax on the shingle beach or visit Scotland's only authentic recreation of an Iron Age loch dwelling. The Scottish Crannog Centre is a unique heritage attraction with guided tours, exhibition and hands on ancient crafts. Reduction on admission price on presentation of this leaflet and your current bus ticket.

See timetables to Kenmore given below.

Bus to Kenmore, then walk back to Aberfeldy across the hills

Superb views, wildlife and solitude virtually guaranteed! This 7.5mile/12km walk starts by climbing the unclassified hill road south from Kenmore, then over a moorland track before finishing at the celebrated Birks of Aberfeldy, a woodland gorge with spectacular waterfall. (The Birks so inspired national bard Robert Burns that he wrote a poem of the same name.) OS Landranger Map 52 required.
