

St Andrews Castle, St Andrews

Love being by the sea at St Andrews

St Andrews is the spiritual home to golfers everywhere. It is the location of the famed Old Course and several other fine golf courses, the Royal and Ancient Golf Club and British Golf Museum (500 years of golf history). The town also has the oldest university in Scotland (beautiful ivy-clad buildings & peaceful quadrangles); a striking ruined cathedral (once the largest in the country), a castle on a rocky outcrop by the sea, two huge sandy beaches, the St Andrews Aquarium and quality shopping. All the ingredients for a perfect day out!

Dunkeld & Birnam - at the heart of Big Tree Country

Two small communities situated on opposite banks of the River Tay amidst some of the finest scenery and woodlands in Scotland. Visit the medieval cathedral, see the Dunkeld Larches and the ancient Birnam Oak, or take in the Beatrix Potter Exhibition and Sculpture Garden. Dunkeld also has a good range of interesting shops. If you want to get close to nature there are 36 miles/58km of wonderful way marked walks in the area (leaflet from Dunkeld Tourist Information Centre). Stretch your legs and then feast on a picnic in the woods or by the mighty River Tay.

The North Inch, Perth

Country walks from the old town of Alyth

Go east to the picturesque farming town of Alyth and then enjoy a brisk walk up Alyth Hill or a stroll through the wooded gorge known as the Den of Alyth. Both walking routes are signposted from The Square, Alyth. The summit of Alyth Hill offers splendid panoramic views across surrounding countryside. Den of Alyth has several walks of varying length through mixed woodland with the Alyth Burn nearby and an abundance of wildlife. Look out for dippers, treecreepers and grey wagtails.
