

Savour the Water of Life in Aberfeldy

In the footsteps of Robert Burns! The Birks of Aberfeldy is a moderate going woodland gorge walk so lovely that it inspired our national bard to write a poem of the same name. The start point is at the town centre after which a narrow path follows a circular route with the spectacular Falls of Moness and abundant wildlife an added bonus. Dewar's World of Whisky (15 minutes walk from centre) combines a working distillery with one of the world's most modern and interactive presentations on the story of Scotland's national drink. Two admissions for the price of one on presentation of this leaflet and your current bus ticket. Enjoy your dram of Dewar's White Label and relax on the bus back to Pitlochry.

The Queen's View – a royal vista

Queen Victoria took tea here in 1866, but the viewpoint actually commemorates Queen Isabella, wife of Robert the Bruce. The view across Loch Tummel to Schiehallion is one of the most famous in Scotland. The visitor centre tells the fascinating story of people and forests in Highland Perthshire. Forest trails nearby - ask centre staff for details.
