Explore the Cotswolds by public transport

Most of the Cotswolds is accessible by public transport. This timetable booklet accompanies a colour guide which introduces the Cotswolds Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) and its attractions together with public transport routes into and around the area. (Find out more about attractions in the Cotswold AONB online by using an interactive map at www.cotswoldsaonb.org.uk).

North, Central and Southern area timetables are available and two editions of each booklet are produced each year: June to December and December to June. There is also a companion booklet telling you how you can walk sections of the Cotswold Way National Trail using public transport to get to your starting point and back at the end of your walk.

The 'Explore the Cotswolds by public transport' guide and accompanying timetable booklets are available free from your local Visitor and Tourist Information Centres, from the Cotswolds Conservation Board office (see back cover for details) or log on to www.cotswoldsaonb.org.uk or www.countrygoer.org

You are reminded that operators of commercial bus services can change their routes and times with only eight weeks' notice. It is always advisable to check with the national Traveline or the bus operator.

Owing to frequent engineering and renewal work, published Sunday train times can change at short notice – you are advised to check with National Rail Enquiries on 08457 48 49 50 before travelling.

 This symbol shows places that are on or very close to the Cotswold Way National Trail. See companion booklet 'Walk and explore the Cotswold Way National Trail by public transport'.
